Step Eleven – Week 1 of 4

Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood God, praying only for knowledge of God's will for us and the power to carry that out.

Essential

Before We Begin — The Set-Aside Prayer

God, please set aside everything that I think I know about myself, my brokenness, the Twelve Steps and you, for an open mind, and a new experience of myself, my brokenness, the Twelve Steps and especially you.

- Read COSA Step Eleven: Working the COSA Eleventh Step booklet/chapter up to the Voices. See Step Study Resources on the COSA Zoom Room website for ordering information.
- Spend some time each day thinking about/meditating on the words of Step Eleven. After several days of meditation, pick one word that stands out to you, and write about that word (any length, any style of writing).<sup>1</sup>
- Start thinking about what works for you as a way of staying connected to your Higher Power (and remembering to stay connected!).
- Be prepared to share your Step Eleven journey each week.

Forever Essential Assignments

It is important for our own recoveries to attend and contact other COSAs. It is recommended for the entire year-long step study. It helps us embrace the “we” part of our fellowship.

- Attend at least one COSA meeting in addition to this Step Study
- Contact at least one COSA

Recommended

- Continue working on amends as needed.
- See what works for you as a way of continuing to take personal inventory (and promptly admitting when you're wrong). Note: This is both Step Ten and Step Eleven work.

Here are some recommended ways to experiment:

- ~ Practicing the method outlined in the Big Book. Chapter 6 Pages 86–95
- ~ Focusing on assets as a way of practicing daily gratitude.
- ~ Noticing what emotions come up and how we react.
- ~ Being gentle with ourselves and letting go of the need for daily practice.
- ~ Focusing on self-care, taking things slowly.
- ~ Letting go of perfection.
- ~ Using smiley faces on the calendar.

Optional

Forever Optional Assignments

- Read back issues of the COSA Balance Newsletter. The month of publication usually has a reading about the Step of that month included.
- If you happen to have other Step literature at home (S-Anon, Al-Anon, 12 & 12, Gentle Path, ACA, Codependents' Guide, etc.) and are interested in exploring it, feel free to read and think about what these resources have to say about this Step.

Step Eleven – Week 2 of 4

Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood God, praying only for knowledge of God's will for us and the power to carry that out.

Essential

Before We Begin — The Set-Aside Prayer

God, please set aside everything that I think I know about myself, my brokenness, the Twelve Steps and you, for an open mind, and a new experience of myself, my brokenness, the Twelve Steps and especially you.

- Choose at least three readings from the COSA Voices in the COSA Step Eleven: Working the COSA Eleventh Step booklet/chapter.
- Solidify plans for your Step Eleven retreat that was started in week four of Step Ten worksheets. For your convenience, the instructions and worksheets have been added to the Steps Eleven Worksheets. See the Step Eleven Retreat, pages 2–3. See Step Study→Step Eleven→Step Eleven Instructions and Worksheets on the COSA Zoom Room website for the PDF.

Please read and answer the questions below.<sup>2</sup>

These questions are prompts to help you recognize your thinking and behavior in relation to this Step. What matters most is how these concepts relate to your life. Be prepared to share your answers with your group.

- It has been said that prayer is speaking to God, and meditation is listening. Am I making time for both?
- Are these separate activities for me, or are they connected? How so?

Step Eleven – Week 3 of 4

Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood God, praying only for knowledge of God's will for us and the power to carry that out.

Essential

Before We Begin — The Set-Aside Prayer

God, please set aside everything that I think I know about myself, my brokenness, the Twelve Steps and you, for an open mind, and a new experience of myself, my brokenness, the Twelve Steps and especially you.

- Use the Dialoguing with Higher Power Worksheet, page 1, as a template to guide your exploration of your conversation with Higher Power. See Step Study→Step Eleven→Step Eleven Worksheets on the COSA Zoom Room website for the PDF.
- Choose at least three questions to answer from the COSA Step Eleven: Working the COSA Eleventh Step booklet/chapter. The questions follow the COSA Voices. Remember, the ones that you want to skip are likely ones that you need to answer.

Please read and answer the question below.<sup>3</sup>

- Prayer can take on many forms. It can be a repetition of something, or it can be spontaneous. It can involve words or even feelings. What does prayer mean to me?
- There are many ways to work Step Eleven.
  - ◆ We can engage in morning and/or evening prayer, meditation, or reflection routines.
  - ◆ We can pray for guidance in small decisions (like what to have for lunch or what to wear) to get a sense of what our Higher Power's guidance feels like -- this could be a voice we hear in our head, an emotion, or feeling in our body.
  - ◆ We can focus on our breath or pay attention to what is happening in our bodies.
  - ◆ We can reflect on specific questions at the end of the day.
  - ◆ We can talk out loud to our Higher Power.
  - ◆ We can make sure we're really listening to and connecting with God rather than just thinking about God.
  - ◆ We can add a moment of prayer at specific points during our day, like waking up or going to sleep, getting out of the car, or showering.

Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood God, praying only for knowledge of God's will for us and the power to carry that out.

Essential

Before We Begin — The Set-Aside Prayer

God, please set aside everything that I think I know about myself, my brokenness, the Twelve Steps and you, for an open mind, and a new experience of myself, my brokenness, the Twelve Steps and especially you.

- If you haven't yet solidified your retreat plans, continue to do so. Share your plans with your sponsor, co-sponsor, or another trusted person.
- Explore different types of meditation.

Please read and answer the questions below.

- What does meditation mean to me?<sup>4</sup>
- What different types of meditation have you experimented with?
- If you have had difficulty with a certain concept of meditation in the past, what are some other types of meditation you might be willing to try?<sup>5</sup>
- Which were most impactful?
- Which were less meaningful?

Story In Three Sentences.<sup>6</sup> For instructions, see Step Study→Step One on the COSA Zoom Room website for the PDF.

- Sentence 1: The Story – Write out (in one sentence) how you seek, or fail to seek, through prayer and meditation to improve your conscious contact with God and/or pray, or fail to pray, for knowledge of God's will and the power to carry that out.
- Sentence 2: Write out (in one sentence) what you did that you wish you had either not done or done differently.
- Sentence 3: Write out what would have been a better choice and/or what I would choose to do in the future when that situation repeats itself.

Example:

- The Story: I sometimes want my own self-centered way instead of truly seeking “knowledge of God’s will for me and the power to carry that out.”
- What do you wish you had either not done or done differently? I wish that my ego and selfishness had not “run amuck.”
- What would have been a better choice? I would take the time – in every situation – to meditate and pray so that I can truly know what my HP’s will for me is and then patiently wait for the power to do what I’ve been impressed to do.
